

TITLE 327 WATER POLLUTION CONTROL BOARD

IDEM'S SUGGESTED CHANGES TO PROPOSED RULE 327 IAC 2-11 CONCERNING GROUND WATER QUALITY STANDARDS LSA Document #99-263

Revisions made by LSA under the Administrative Rules Drafting Manual (IC 4-22-8-4(a) (2)) and incorporated into the printed version (LSA Document #99-263) have been made in the version of the rule presented to the board for final adoption.

8. 327 IAC 2-11-2(e)
 Insert a new subsection (e) to read as follows:
 “(e) No person shall cause the ground water in a drinking water supply well to have a contaminant concentration that creates one (1) or more of the following:
 (1) An exceedance of the numeric criteria established for drinking water class ground water in Tables 6(a)1 and 6(a) 2 of this rule.
 (2) A level sufficient to be acutely or chronically toxic, carcinogenic, mutagenic, teratogenic, or otherwise injurious to human health based on best scientific information.
 (3) An exceedance of one (1) or more of the following indicator levels:
 (A) Chloride at two hundred fifty (250) milligrams per liter.
 (B) Sulfate at two hundred fifty (250) milligrams per liter;
 (C) Total dissolved solids at five hundred (500) milligrams per liter;
 (D) Total coliform bacteria at nondetect.
 (4) Renders the well unuseable for normal domestic use.”

Insert the following new definition:
“(10) “Preventative action level” means a measured concentration of a chemical constituent that is:
 (A) established on a site-specific or program-specific basis;
 (B) used to evaluate sample analysis data from ground water monitoring systems;
 (C) statistically measurable using standard laboratory analyses; and
 (D) used to determine if further action is necessary to ensure the standards established in this rule are not violated.”

(g) Ground water is impaired drinking water when the following conditions are met:
(1) The ground water is not in a state-approved wellhead protection area established pursuant to 327 IAC 8-4.1.
(2) The ground water has one (1) or more contaminant | concentrations above the numeric criteria established in section 6(a) or 6(d) of this rule.

(3) The commissioner has approved a ground water remediation, closure, cleanup, or corrective action plan that describes the nature and extent of contaminants exceeding the criteria established in section 6(a) or 6 (d), and one (1) of the following applies:

(A) A restrictive covenant has been placed on the property or properties overlying the ground water, and it prohibits the use of the untreated ground water.

(B) An alternate institutional control, such as a local ordinance, prohibits the use of the untreated ground water as a source of residential drinking water, and the commissioner has approved the alternate institutional control as an effective means of preventing exposure to the untreated ground water.
